

THE DOUGLAS-JERVIS SILVER SALVERS

Men's Open Foursomes Matchplay Tournament October 2017 - April 2018

This event takes place over the Winter Season and is a Foursomes Matchplay Tournament. There is also a further competition for first round losers; the Douglas-Jervis Plate with first round losers automatically entered in to this competition, played in a Fourball Betterball format. The rounds for this competition will be played concurrently with the main competition.

The entry fee is £60.00 per non member and £25 per member.

Please note that all visiting golfers will be guaranteed 2 rounds of golf at Prince's.

Entries will be accepted from 1st January 2017. Late entries will not be accepted.

Please note that it is the responsibility of both pairs to organise matches before the final dates for each rounds. No extensions will be given, however if the course is closed due to bad weather the committee may decide to extend rounds and this will be at the discretion of the committee. Winners will, in addition to their prizes, be given free entry to the following year's competition. On Saturdays and Sundays all matches to be played after 11am.
